INMATE REQUEST TO STAFF RESPONSE

This is in response to your request to staff in which you request consideration for Compassionate Release/Reduction in Sentence (RIS) in accordance with Program Statement 5050.50. Specifically, you request a Compassionate Release/RIS based on Debilitated Medical Condition in relation to the novel Coronavirus (COVID-19).

In accordance with Program Statement 5050.50, Compassionate Release/Reduction in Sentence, Procedures for Implementation of 18 U.S.C. 3582 and 4205(g), an inmate may initiate a request for RIS consideration only when there are particularly extraordinary or compelling circumstances, which could not reasonably have been foreseen by the court at the time of sentencing. Furthermore, in order to meet the criteria for debilitating medical conditions an inmate should be completely disabled, meaning the inmate cannot carry on any self-care, and is totally confined to a bed or chair; or capable of only limited self-care, and is confined to a bed or chair more than 50% of waking hours.

A review of your medical records reflects you are a 42-year-old male who has been diagnosed with post stab and gunshot wound injuries, chronic pain in your neck, thoracic, and lower back, eczema/dermatitis in your fingers of both hands. The medical staff at FCI Fort Dix advised, based upon the guidelines of the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), you are not at a higher risk for severe COVID-19 illness. Additionally, you do not have a terminal medical condition and you are both, fully ambulatory and capable of carrying out your institutional daily life activities without assistance. There is no evidence your current medical conditions substantially diminish your ability to function in a correctional facility. Accordingly, your request for a compassionate release is denied.

If you are dissatisfied with this response, you may appeal the decision through the Administrative Remedy process.
